These are the men who must attend court March 14th unless excused for good and sufficient reason by his Honor A. N. Kepoikai. The term will in all probability not last long as the litigation at this time of the year is less than at the terms later in the year.

PROGRAM TO SUIT ALL SCHOOLS.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Education Commissioner Farrington made inquiry regarding the patriotic program for use in the public schools, for which a number of plans were received in competition for the McCandless $50 prize. Superintendent of Public Instruction Babbitt answered at the time that he was preparing a program using that of Miss Lyons, which won the McCandless prize as a basis, but adding to it the best features of other plans which had been submitted in the contest.

The program which babbitt is getting together will thus contain all the best features of the plans and will embody many good ideas. While it will be too long to be used by any school in its entirety, it is so modeled that selections from it can be used to suit different places, circumstances or occasions. Thus schools situated in districts where many weather prevails will generally have to use a program suitable for indoors, while those who have good grounds, and where good weather prevails can have open air exercises, with rallying around the flag pole, etc.

Furthermore, it is not intended that any one school shall use the same program every day of the year. Selections can be made from the general plan so as to make the program each day suitable to the individual occasion, which may present itself. Thus, on the birthday of famous men selections from their works or speeches should be read, or a history of their lives and deeds given by the teacher. The songs and prayers used can also be greatly varied. Thus, for instance, a little poem written by Philip H. Dodge, and which is much liked by the Governor, will be included in the general program and recommended for use. It runs as follows.

Hawaii land is fair,
Rich are the gifts we share,
This is our common prayer
O land of light,
We may join heart and hand
That as a noble band
Till all Hawaii's land
Stands for the right.

Babbitt intends to have the program printed in pamphlet form for distribution among the teachers. He hopes he will have it ready to submit at the next meeting of the board.

GOES INSANE.

The early part of last week Tanabe Kinzabaro was taken in charge by the authorities at Punahoa and placed in the Wailuku Jail to await an examination into his mental condition.

The surroundings did not seem to please the unfortunate man and he broke jail and went back to Punahoa where he was again taken charge of.

On Tuesday of this week he was committed to the insane asylum and taken to Honolulu.

HER HUSBANDS OTHER WIFE.

Jim Yee Sang was before District magistrate W. A. McKay on Monday of this week charged with vagrancy. The most prominent witness was Mrs. Tai Fook a Portuguese woman who sometime ago married a Chinaman.

Some very funny developments were brought to light. Her testimony was that she heard the defendant enter the house from the rear and saw him with his hat in his hand but didn't know the color of the clothes he wore nor the kind of clothes he even whether they were Chinese or European. She was two rooms away and there was no light in the room in which defendant was yet she knew him by the sound of his footstep. She admitted having received presents from defendant but said he was a relative but when questioned further stated he was a brother of her husband's Chinese wife in China. Tai Fook seemed better informed on American jurisprudence than his Portuguese spouse and strenuously denied the existence of Mrs. Fook in China. The witnesses were not of such a character as to inspire confidence in the minds of those present and as Ah Tong who speaks English fluently went out and talked with the witnesses some seemed to think he was meddling and was called before the court and warned to keep away from them.

The case took parts of two days and as no evidence was put on by defendant he was found guilty and sentenced to two months at hard labor. An appeal will be taken.

CHURCH LUAU IN KAHULUI.

Last Sunday morning a large crowd of people gathered in Kahului to attend a luau for the benefit of the native church to be built there.

The Kahului railroad company provided a commodious lanai and ran special trains for the convenience of the many who attended.

The foods served were most delicious which all enjoyed most heartily while the several Sunday schools represented furnished some of the best vocal music heard on Maui at a luau.

There were three or four hundred people present. Those who addressed the assemblage were Judge A. N. Kepoikai Peter Noa Reverent J. Nua and Rev. R. B. Dodges. The success of the affair was greatly due to the efforts of Honorable H. P. Baldwin Esq. R. W. Filler of the Kahului Railroad and Mrs. Robert English.

The net receipts were one hundred and seventy three dollars.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 13.—Preparations are being made for the reopening of the Japanese Legation here.

Since that date, although the peace commissioners met at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, on the invitation of President Roosevelt, there has been no formal re-establishment of diplomatic relations between the powers that fought the greatest war of modern times. The re-opening of the Japanese legation at St. Petersburg marks the actual resumption of peaceful relations between the two powers.

PEKING, Feb. 13.—The Government has ordered the immediate execution of the Changpu rioters.

A cablegram from London yesterday afternoon stated that British government had made a demand that China compensate missionaries for the destruction of their property by a mob at Peking, and also punish the perpetrators of the outrage. China responded promptly, so far as the punishment clause of the concerned. Presumably the Changpu riot leaders are in Peking if they are not, soon will be, and their death will be the cost the Chinese government nothing but a few live cheapest product of China.

The matter of demand for compensation is a doubtless China will take her time in giving satisfaction. She does not feel particularly friendly to any European while there has been nothing so far to indicate Peking shares the hostility of the people, it is some of the anti-foreign feeling has reached that case the Changpu missionaries will for their compensation.

It is all right to let your little girls and boys run about barefooted once in a while, but not all the time. Their poor little feet soon become big, broad and swollen, and they won't thank you for that when they grow into men and women.

We have imported a line of shoes especially made for school children. They are strong and neat. You will have no reason to complain about the price.

Kindly also bear in mind that we have the finest lines of Ladies' and Men's shoes from the greatest shoe firm in the world.
